Consumer behaviors can be grouped into four key categories: awareness, preference, engagement and advocacy. Each of these stages is important to the markete

What it is. Simply put, a market insight is the discovery of a relevant, actionable and previously unrealized reality about a target market as the result of deep, subjective data analysis.

There are lots of different ways you could conduct market research and collect customer data, but you don't have to limit yourself to just one research method.

Market analysis is a detailed assessment of your business's target market and the competitive landscape within a specific industry

There are four major factors that cause both long-term trends and short-term fluctuations. These factors are government, international transactions, speculation and expectation, and supply and demand.
